The Editor's Say to the Brethren.

The 1905 Annual is sent out with the prayer that it will be helpful to the cause we represent; it is sent, too, with the feeling that it is not perfect, for changes have taken place since the reports were sent in, and possibly since the reports were given to the printers.

In the gathering of the material, the great sacrifice made by many of our churches and ministers has been revealed. I have read these accounts, laid the letters down, later read them again, then thanked God for such noble men and women. A quotation from one letter will reveal the real facts in many others: "I am very sorry to have to send you such a poor report of our conference; but really our people are so scattered and so poor, and I have preached so long for almost nothing, and am so far behind financially, that I now have to turn my attention to something else so that I can get square with the world." Such sacrifices are not fully realized only by those who make them.

The hearty co-operation of all is needed to make the Annual what it ought to be; and all should feel free to send corrections when the need is seen. The book should be as correct as it is possible to make it.

I am not sure that the list of conference is complete, but it is all I could get.

Possibly some ministers are left out of the Directory who ought to be in; if so, I am very sorry; but I could only put in those who reported to me, as asked for weeks in the HERALD OF GOSPEL LIBERTY, or were reported by the conference officers.

It was necessary to treat all the illustrations alike; this will account for some things being omitted.

Many kind words have been said, but not one word which revealed the spirit of harshness or impatience, no matter how often information was asked.

I want to thank all the conference clerks and officers for their kindness and patience, and trust that as they read the Annual and discover mistakes, they will feel kindly toward editor and printer, and remember that the mistakes were not intentionally made.

Finally, "The Lord bless thee, and keep thee; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace."

CHRISTIAN PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION BUILDING,
FIFTH AND LUDLOW STREETS, DAYTON, OHIO.

The Christian Publishing Association.

Officers and Trustees.

President, O. W. WHITELOCK, Huntington, Indiana.
Secretary, REV. HENRY CRAMPTON, Eaton, Ohio.
Treasurer, GEORGE WORLEY, Covington, Ohio.
Publishing Agent, J. N. HESS, Dayton, Ohio.

Trustees.

Rev. T. M. McWhinney, Rev. G. D. Lawrence,
Rev. D. M. Helfenstein, Rev. I. H. Gray,
Rev. W. W. Staley, E. L. Goodwin,
Prof. J. N. Dales, also the President and Secretary.

The new building of the Christian Publishing Association is one in which we can all feel an interest; it is located on one of the best corners in the city, one block from the union railroad station and one block from the post-office—two permanent buildings. Our building has a good basement; four store-rooms on the first floor; several suites of rooms on second and third floors, and offices and composition room on the fourth floor for the Association's use. The building will be equipped with modern machinery, elevator, etc. The success of the enterprise is due to the business tact of O. W. Whitelock and I. H. Gray, and to the unceasing oversight of J. N. Hess. These brethren certainly deserve the hearty appreciation of our people everywhere.

The business of the Association is in a healthy condition, and the prospects are encouraging. During 1904, three new books have been issued—Scripture Doctrine, by J. J. Summerbell; Fruit-Bearing Truths, by J. P. Barrett, and Christian Endeavor Addresses, by J. F. Burnett. These books should be bought and read by our people, for they are by our own brethren.

During the year new editions of The Christian Hymnary, The Complete Sunday-school Secretary Book, and The Complete Sunday-school Class Book were issued, beside a number of pamphlets on various topics.

The subscription list of the Herald of Gospel Liberty is larger than it was a year ago, and the Sunday-school literature is doing well.

We can be loyal to our Publishing House without being sectarian, and it is very easy to see that if we do not look out for our own institutions and support them, we cannot expect them to succeed. Let us be true to what God has placed in our hands to take care of for his cause, and to enable the world to reach a much higher plane of existence. Editors, Secretaries and Agents can succeed only as the people who elect them to these positions of tremendous responsibility and trust stand by them.

HENRY CRAMPTON, Secretary.

The American Christian Convention.

BY REV. O. W. POWERS, D. D., PRESIDENT.

This body represents the organized forces of the Christians. In its quadrennial meeting an attempt is made to secure the expression of the best thought concerning our common interests, and to devise measures for promoting the welfare of the institutions and organizations represented.

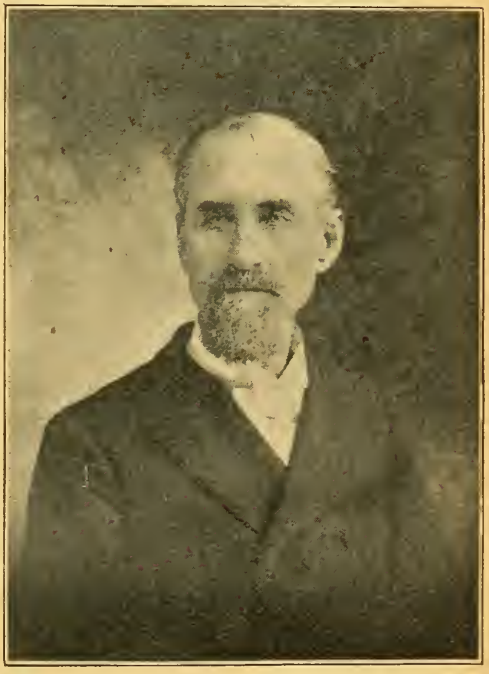
The few days spent in counsel once in four years are not sufficient to do more than review the work of the quadrennium and inaugurate needful measures for enlarging and carrying forward the enterprises of the denomination. Continuous work is demanded to make the plans of the Convention effective. This is provided for by committing the work to secretaries, boards and other agencies, and placing all under the supervision of the Executive Board of the Convention.

Four factors enter into the success of the Convention measures; the wisdom of the plans, the faithfulness and efficiency of the officers, the proper co-operation of the departments, and the support of the people. The responsibility for the first and second rests with the Convention in its quadrennial assembly; the others may be greatly helped by wise action on the part of the Executive Board. To this end annual meetings for review of the work and for supplementary plans to meet emergencies are held; statistics are gathered; information concerning the work of the departments is disseminated, both through the denominational papers, and by other publications; and, to some extent visitation of conferences and institutions by representatives of the Board is provided for. Misunderstandings are removed, conflict between the work of various departments is avoided, and the effectiveness of all is increased.

A very important part of the Convention work is done by the General Secretary. Requests are coming constantly for information, advice and encouragement. The success of all the departments has been aided by the quiet work done in the secretary's office. Whatever incidental expenses are incurred by the Sunday-school and Christian Endeavor departments are met from the collections of the Convention Secretary, as these have no treasuries of their own. Probably no contribution for general purposes brings better results than the one for the American Christian Convention, although it has always been the smallest of the authorized collections.

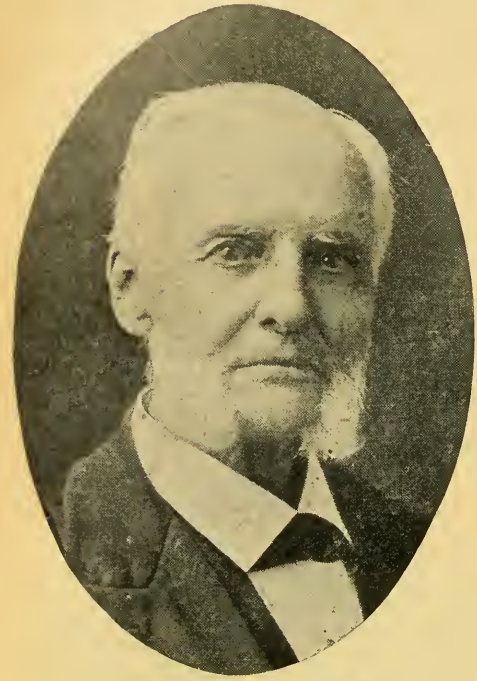
The Convention is coming to be more generally recognized as the leader in our organized work. The whole is greater than any of its parts, and the Convention is more than any one of its departments. But here, as with individuals, the law holds, that the agency that is greatest among us will be that which is most truly servant of all.

Columbus, Ohio.



REV. R. J. WRIGHT,
Capron, Illinois.

The Missionary Department.



REV. J. G. BISHOP, DAYTON, OHIO,
Mission Secretary, A. C. C.

The following constitutes the Mission Board of the Christian Church:

J. G. Bishop, D. D. Secretary of the department, and ex-officio president of the Board.

Rev. W. H. Denison, A. M., Recording Secretary.

J. P. Barrett, D. D., Rev. G. A. Conibear, Rev. M. T. Morrill, Rev. Robt. Harris, Rev. Hannah W. Stanley, Mr. Geo. Worley and Mr. A. S. Lynn.

MISSION COUNCIL: Revs. W. H. Denison, J. P. Barrett, H. W. Stanley, J. G. Bishop and Mr. Geo. Worley.

Communications relating to any line of the Missionary work and to The Christian Missionary, and all remittances for missionary purposes, except from the Woman's Missionary Societies, should be addressed to, J. G. BISHOP, Dayton, Ohio.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

President, Rev. Emily K. Bishop, Dayton, O.
Vice-President, Mrs. Clellie Loback, Crawfordsville, Ind.
Rec. Sec'y, Mrs. Athella Howsare, Maple Rapids, Mich.
Cor. Secretary, Miss Orpha Adkison, LeGrand, Iowa.
Treasurer, Mrs. Ada O. Warbinton, [illegible]erstown, Ind.

WOMAN'S BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

President, Rev. Ellen G. Gustin, Attleboro, Mass.
Vice-President, Rev. Emily K. Bishop, Dayton, Ohio.
Rec. Sec'y, Miss Annie E. Batchelor, New Bedford, Mass.
Cor. Secretary, Miss Annie Libby, Saco, Maine.
Treasurer, Mrs. Mary J. Batchelor, New Bedford, Mass.

All money from woman's missionary societies should be sent to their respective treasurers, as above; for home missions to Mrs. Warbinton; for foreign missions to Mrs. Batchelor.

FINANCIAL.

The total receipts to the mission treasury the last year were $19,138.56. This includes $2,228.03 which came through the Woman's Board for Foreign Missions, and $723.24 which came through the Woman's Board for Home Missions.

The total receipts for all purposes this year are $1,336.08 more than last year. But while this is true, the outlay to meet, in some measure, the growth of the work, has been correspondingly larger than the increase of the income, so that we find the balance on hand—$1,974.92—less than we had on hand at the beginning of last year by $3,474.92.

THE HOME FIELD.

The following statistics will indicate—

perhaps about as accurately as tabulated statistics can indicate—something of the work done the past year in the home field:

HOME MISSION STATISTICS FOR THE YEAR ENDING OCTOBER 1, 1904.

Number of workers for the whole or a part of the year	28
Number of sermons preached	2,519
Number of services held	3,926
Number of religious calls made	6,907
Number of conversions reported	348
Number of members received	383
Number of churches organized	4
Number of Sunday-schools organized	12
Average attendance at church service	5,411
Average attendance at Sunday-school	3,681
Number of subscriptions to The Christian Missionary	159
Number of subscriptions to Herald of Gospel Liberty	49
Amount paid by missions toward missionaries' salaries	$4,756.87
Amount paid on A. C. C. calls	511.01
Amount paid for all other purposes	6,178.61

Both the statistical reports and the letters from the various home missionaries, as given quarterly in The Christian Missionary, have shown good work done. At Toronto, Canada, Columbus, Ga., Greensboro, N. C., and Danville, Ill., new churches were built. At Rifle, Colo., Lima, Ohio, and North Greensboro, N. C., new churches are in process of construction. Our mission work in Colorado, North Dakota and Montana, made encouraging progress the last year, and is starting in well for this year—Our mission fiscal year commences and ends October first.

Appropriations are voted this year for about thirty points. Does some one say, "That is spreading the small amount available over too much territory? Perhaps that is so. And perhaps, the critic who thinks so, would do no better were he added to the Board and with the other nine members should see the field in its vastness and needs, as it is seen and learned from the appealing letters that come from the various quarters of the United States and Canada. Of one thing we feel sure, if many of our pastors could sit one week with the Mission Board in its annual meetings, they would see that larger offerings were sent up from their churches.

THE FOREIGN FIELD.

JAPAN.

Nothwithstanding the terrible war in which Japan is now engaged, the past year was more fruitful in spiritual results, than any previous year in the history of our work in that country. There were more conversions and baptisms.

A new station was opened at Utsunomiya, a city of 40,000; capital of a province, lying between Tokyo and Sendai. God has already given them several converts—foundation for a church in that city.

Miss True being entitled to a furlough, it was expected that she would come home in October last. But feeling that health conditions did not demand it, and that her services were so much needed there, she requested to be permitted to remain at her post of duty for another year. How noble the self-denial—for Christ's sake.

One very encouraging feature of the work is the success of the Bible Training School in Tokyo—in the securing of students, and the evangelistic work that is being done by the students. Encouraging because more efficient native workers are so much needed, as well as more missionaries. The school begins this year with ten students. Need is already being felt for larger quarters for our school work. The need for more missionaries and more buildings is an appeal that ought to be heard by our people.

PORTO RICO.

Rev. T. E. White and Rev. Jennie Mishler, both, on account of health conditions, came home on furlough; Sister Mishler, early in April and Brother White, the latter part of May. Brother White returned to the field in October, while Sister Mishler is working among the home churches in the interest of the work for a time. Notwithstanding the smallness of the working force on the field for so much of the year—Brother Barrett, wife and native helpers God has graciously given us—good progress has been made in the work, as indicated by the following:

ENCOURAGEMENTS.

Much more than usual of the Campmeeting work at Craigville, Mass., last August was given to the cause of missions, in which much interest was taken.

The second International Missionary Conference, held at Farmland, Ind., in October, was characterized by marked spiritual power and a deepened and increased interest in missions. The collection, though hardly half what seems to some of us it should have been, was larger than at our previous Convention.

The subject of missions is securing a larger place in the thoughts of more of our people, and is being given a larger place on the programs of more of our annual conferences, conventions, and institutes.

The demand is being created and recognized for more distinctively missionary conferences and rallies.

More of the Woman's Conference Missionary Boards are planning for, and holding a mid-year missionary conference, usually of one day.

More Auxiliary church missionary societies are being organized.

Fully one-half more mission tract literature was sent out from the mission rooms last year than during any previous year.

THE CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY.

Of The Christian Missionary, one million three hundred and seventy-two thousand eight hundred pages were printed and sent out during the the year. The magazine has found its way into quite a number of new homes during the year, and we have the assurance that its spirit, aim and work are being appreciated. It goes into some of the libraries of the country, into the reading rooms of our colleges, and on exchange, into the offices of American and European missionary societies. As our representative in these places it guarantees a knowledge of our missionary work and its record in the missionary history of the age.

This magazine is the official and only missionary organ of the denomination. While the other papers of the denomination speak out, and speak well, for missions, The Christian Missionary is the only one that gives the reports of the Mission officers, and the missionaries in both the home and foreign fields, with much other information regarding our own work and the work of others in the great missionary world, that our people can get nowhere else.

The January number is to contain the report of the late International Missionary Conference—papers, speeches, and addresses. This issue alone will be worth the price of the magazine for a whole year—which is fifty cents.

NEW RECRUITS.

Three new recruits for the foreign field were put under appointment at the last meeting of the Board. One was already under appointment. These four, with Miss Mishler now at home on furlough, should all be sent to the field this year; and will be if our home churches will make it possible—possible to send these and support those already on the field. Able? No question about that. It is only a question of willing obedience to the Lord's command, to "Go" or "Send." And that question may involve our own salvation. "To him that knoweth to do good,"—when he has the ability and opportunity—"and doeth it not, to him it is sin." James 4:14.

THE DEATH BED.

We watched her breathing through the night,
Her breathing soft and low,
As in her breast the wave of life
Kept heaving to and fro.

So silently we seemed to speak,
So slowly moved about,
As we had lent her half our powers
To eke her living out.

Our very hopes belied our fears,
Our fears our hopes belied—
We thought her dying when she slept,
And sleeping when she died.

For when the morn came, dim and sad,
And chill with early showers,
Her quiet eyelids closed—she had Another morn than ours.

—Thomas Hood.

Mrs. Emma Dickson was 82 years old November 6, 1904. That day being Sunday, she walked five blocks to and from our church in Dayton, Ohio, and by request gave a talk to the Sunday-school, and offered the opening prayer in the church service. Mrs. Dickson is the widow of one of our well-known ministers, and the mother of Mrs. J. N. Hess, with whom she has her home.

Each man must seek and find truth for himself and in his own way, and only that truth which he finds and makes his own has any value to him or affects his character. Mere assent or unwilling consent to what others believe to be truth is utterly valueless to him. —William D. Little.

BY THE SEA.

Written by Rev. Eliza L. Brown, Liberty, Indiana, on the occasion of our latest Quadrennial Meeting.

Lord, as thy people meet,
Down by the sea,
And at the mercy seat
Offer their plea,
Hear thou the prayers we raise,
Hear thou our songs of praise,
Lead us in all our ways
Nearer to thee.

As the great billows roll,
At thy decree,
Held by thy sure control,
Yet flowing free,
So may we own thy power,
Thought, word and action o'er;
Draw as our souls adore,
Nearer to thee.

Forth in the bloom of youth,
Through love to thee,
Bearing thy word of truth
Over the sea,
Hence have our loved ones gone,
That light divine shall dawn
In souls that shall be drawn
Nearer to thee.

As the blue waters bright
Fill all the sea,
Breaking in waves of light,
Unceasingly,
Shall knowledge of thee fill
Each waiting land until
All learn to do thy will,
All trust in thee.

The Home is sustained by donations and the income of a small endowment—$10,000—given by the late Hon. Francis A. Palmer, of Broadway, New York. The endowment ought to be raised to $25,000.

Educational Department.

REV. M. W. BAKER, SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.
Secretary for Education American Christian Convention.

The Educational Board met in October, when some changes were made in its personnel. This resulted from the resignation of Rev. John Blood as a member and treasurer of the Board, to take the presidency of the re-organized Board of Control for Franklinton College. Rev. W. G. Sargent of Toronto was elected to membership on the Board, which was re-organized as follows:

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Rev. Marion W. Baker, Ph. D., B. D., Springfield, Ohio. president; Rev. W. G. Sargent, B. A., Toronto, Ontario. clerk; Professor W. A. Bell, LL. D., Indianapolis, Indiana, treasurer; Rev. P. H. Fleming. M. A., Burlington, N. C.

The first year's experience demonstrated that the interests of Franklinton College could not be advantageously managed in connection with the more general educational work of the Board, and as a result and by advice of the A. C. C. Executive Board, the Franklinton Board of Control was revived and to it was referred the entire management of our school for Negroes. This board consists of the following members:

THE FRANKLINTON BOARD.

Rev. John Blood, Lewisburg, Pa., president and treasurer; Rev. N. Del McReynolds, Bellefontaine, Ohio; Rev. J. L. Foster, Raleigh, N. C.; Rev. W. H. Hainer, Irvington, N. J.; Rev. F. H. Peters, Fall River, Mass.

PLAN OF COLLECTION.

Experience also indicated that the Educational calls could be sent out and remittances receipted more conveniently and economically from the office of the A. C. C. Secretary. This plan was endorsed by the A. C. C. Executive Board and adopted. The A. C. C. Secretary receipts, acknowledges, and turns over to the Educational treasurer, all money for educational purposes. Both receipts and disbursements are published in the Herald of Gospel Liberty.

RECEIPTS.

The total receipts from November, 1902, to May, 1904, (including only one regular collection) were about $1,700.00. For the present year the indications are for a somewhat smaller sum. This should be available for distribution early in 1905, the date depending on two issues, viz., the promptness with which the churches remit, and the promptness with which the beneficiary schools supply the information for the current year on which the appropriations are to be reckoned.

DISBURSEMENTS—BASIS.

The Board seeks such knowledge of every school as will enable an intelligent distribution, putting every dollar where its use promises the greatest good to the greatest number. In determining the distribution the effort is to consider all related circumstances and conditions. The endowment, other sources of income, the current expenses, the separate and total salaries, the number of teachers and the amount of work each actually renders, the equipment, the courses, the number and class of students, the aggressiveness and policy of the school, and the accomplishment in proportion to the opportunities and resources—all these enter into the consideration of the Board in determining appropriations.

That the institutions should not in all cases see matters from the Board's point of view is not surprising. The problem is similar to that met by the Mission Board in determining what churches asking aid give promise of surest and largest returns, and to what extent each can be helped from the limited funds available for that purpose.

PROGRESS.

The past year records no great growth, but life and progress are in general evidence. Some additions have been made to endowments, some courses have been revised, some gains made in enrollment and income, while Starkey, Elon, Defiance and Palmer have added to their apparatus for laboratory work. At Defiance and Elon, homes for ladies are needed and planned. U. C. College is in a stage of transition, having during the year changed presidents, revised courses, and entered on negotiations looking toward removal. On the whole, the statistics do not differ materially from those submitted a year ago, and therefore are not this year given in tabular form.

WORK OF THE OFFICE.

The Secretary has, by addressing letters to the officers of each conference, sought to come into communication with the whole field. The gathering of educational statistics, information, facts and standards is of vital importance. Encouraging but not wholly satisfactory results have been obtained. Better acquaintance among the brethren of the various sections, will render plans for united forward effort along educational, as well as other lines, more definite and effective.

VISITS TO SOME OF THE FIELDS.

During the year visits were made to Queen's University, Christian Biblical Institute, Starkey Seminary, and Union Christian College. During the coming year it is hoped that at least one trip may be made possible, including in its itinerary our southern or our western schools.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study authorized by the A. C. C. at Norfolk, has been published, together with a brief sketch of each of our nine schools, making a pamphlet of fifty-four pages. Copies of this may be had from Secretary Burnett, Muncie, Ind. The course is not set forth as absolute or final, but as suggestive. It should form the basis from which should result by additions, eliminations, substitutions and revision the best practical course for ministers.

DEPARTMENT IN HERALD.

The Educational Department in the Herald of Gospel Liberty has been conducted, and is believed to have proven an effective means of promoting educational interests.

THE GROWTH OF THE WORK.

The work that should be done by the A. C. C. Educational Secretary is of such nature and importance that its satisfactory execution is impossible as a secondary duty added to those of a pastor. Here rises a serious, practical question: To what extent should a pastor take for general work, time and energy rightly belonging to the study and the parish? If by the time of the next meeting of the Convention, plans could be laid for the employment of at least a part of the time of a practical educator, who should be at the head of our denominational work in education, seeking by visitation, publication, advice, solicitation, and correlation to promote these interests, a definite step in a right and promising direction will have been made.

Other denominations employ such officers with good results in securing students, funds, endowment, teachers, and as an instructor in methods of studying and teaching, as well as in other special subjects, including Bible introduction and exposition. This field offers for us a rich harvest if a resourceful man can be put to work in it.

DENOMINATIONAL AND STATE SCHOOLS.

With institutions as with individuals, there must be division of labor. Each has a special and peculiar work to the performance of which all energies should be engaged. We believe that the denominational school still has a mission whose accomplishment measures success.

This mission is in rare cases, if in any, the duplication of work offered by the public schools which the American people are glad to support by taxation. Church schools should supplement the state schools, and not enter into unnecessary competition with them. The supplementary work needed is sufficient to engage all the resources of money and scholarship that the churches can produce and maintain.

Whatever lines of essential instruction are neglected or deficient in the public institutions of any state, should determine the work for the denominational schools of that state. We should not imitate the example of Romanism, in seeking to weaken the worth and usefulness of public institutions. The time may come when only distinctively religious instruction will be left to the denominational schools in most states. The church school, like the churches and the public schools, is a means and not an end in itself. The recognition of its work as supplemental will aid in handling the vexed question agitating some educators, and arraying church schools against state schools.

GROUND FOR SEEKING STUDENTS.

Only when a church school offers superior instruction, courses, influences or opportunities has it a moral right to seek patronage from those who would otherwise be in public institutions. The same is true in a comparison of church schools among themselves. This is the only ground upon which our people can be urged to patronize our own schools—not that they are ours, but that they are as good at least, as the same persons might otherwise attend. The educational training of our children is second in importance to their moral and spiritual training. It indeed has its main significance from being inseparable from character-making. It is as vital as the physical well being of the child. We do not put an ill child under the care of nurse or physician because of family or denominational relations, but because we believe no better is available. So shall it be with the schools.

LARGE AND SMALL SCHOOLS.

The plan for centralizing (at Queen's University our eastern students), receives approval from this department and from the brethren of the section concerned because of what the school is and of what it offers. The character of an institution is determined, not by its size or its endowment, but by its courses, instructors, thoroughness, and practical success in mind and character building. No class of schools, large or small, church or state, endowed or unendowed, includes all either of the superior or the inferior institutions or instructors.

Much is said in praise of the small school as generally superior, but if the virtue lies in being small, why is every one of the small schools that is improving its opportunities and accomplishing a mission, striving unceasingly to get big?

The writer studied at the small school, the large school, and that of medium size; at the church school, the state school, and the independent school; at the co-educational school and that for men only. In each are found teachers who help and those who hinder; students who work and those who shirk; the spendthrift and the economist. These extremes meet in schools of every class.

THE WAY OF LIFE.

Not size, claims, management, or sources of support, but character determines the worth of institutions as of individuals. Service and prosperity lie in the way of the cultivation of those elements that form character, and in that way we are glad to believe our schools go.

Christian Biblical Institute,

STANFORDVILLE, N. Y.

This is the Theological School and Ministerial Training School of the religious body known as "Christians," instituted under the action of the American Christian Convention taken in 1866.

THE PRIMARY DESIGN

of the founders of the school was to aid in preparation for their own ministry; but it is open to well accredited Christians who desire to prepare for the ministry or other gospel work, without regard to sex, age, or denominational preferences. Its desire is to help build up the kingdom of Christ in any way it can best be done.

Its theological "standard" is the Bible. Hence the object of the school is primarily and chiefly the study of the Bible, especially the New Testament, believing that from this source the preacher draws his best preparations for his work. Its courses of study are arranged with reference to this.

By additions to the corps of teachers, last year, by securing Miss Stone, and this year Prof. S. G. Palmer, the Institute is enabled to do broader and more thorough work in lines specially adapted to the purpose for which the school is established, without adding to the students' expenses.

THE EXPENSES

of the school are light. It aims to bring its privileges within the reach of all by offering its tuition and the use of its very pleasant, furnished rooms free of charge, and by bringing board and other expenses to the lowest figure consistent with wise economy. The buildings are pleasant and pleasantly located. The students' rooms are cheerful, well lighted, and warmed by a hot-water system. The entire expenses of a school year, including heat and books, need not be above $85 or $100.

REV. T. S. WEEKS, FALL RIVER, MASS.
Sunday-school Secretary American Christian Convention.

To the Brotherhood:

We should be glad to report the numerical strength and other items of interest concerning the standing of our Sunday-schools in a definite and satisfactory manner, but as yet that is impossible. It is always well to have something to look forward to. When all our conferences appreciate the importance of Sunday-school work to the full, we shall then get reports from the proper officials in proper form, and be able in turn to put them in touch with many helpful things of which they know not now.

It is safe to assume that we have more than 100,000 pupils, teachers, and officers in our Sunday-schools, perhaps as many as 125,000. Here is a great opportunity which entails a great responsibility. It means that more than 100,000 people, most of them young, are in contact with the open Bible in an atmosphere of religious liberty which is favorable to growth in grace and in the knowledge of Jesus Christ, and of the former through the latter best of all.

It makes a great difference whether a true manhood is nourished by the spirit of truth, or whether that manhood is cramped and fettered by a creed. The Bible is intended to help us to a larger life, a fuller life, a higher life; for these are the qualities of the "life eternal" which comes through a knowledge of the true God and Jesus Christ the sent one in whom the grace and truth are seen.

The Bible school is the best agency for the development of a sane and satisfactory religious life among the people, but the Bible school may be greatly improved beyond what it is to-day. It has been depreciated for what it has not done, but it should be approved and improved for what it has done and for what it may do.

Not long ago we heard Marion Lawrence say that it was wisdom for the farmer to pay the most attention to the field which yields the largest crop; and that as the Sunday-school is that field of Christian activity which yields the largest returns to the kingdom of God, the church should pay more attention to it. We desire to endorse his words.

Some churches (not a few), pay more money for the sexton, the choir, the social functions, or the floral decorations, than they do for the Sunday-school. We object. It would be as sensible for the farmer to waste all his fertilizers on his sheep pasture, and leave his meadows to run out or his corn-fields to become barren, as it is for the church to expend energy and money on these minor agencies and neglect the most productive one of all. We trust the opening year may be marked by an advance movement on Sunday-school lines. We suggest special attention to the following items, which are a few of the many:

1. Better rooms and better equipment for the Sunday-school.

2. Better lesson helps. In harmony with the editor of the S. S. Literature, whose article appears in this department of the Annual, we are seeking for such improvements as are desir... on this line.

3. Better qualifications for those who teach in the Sunday-school. Somebody in every church should be responsible for teaching the teachers what to teach, and how to teach it.

4. Sunday-school extension through such agencies as the Home Department and the Cradle Roll, until you have many whole parishes engaged in a well directed study of the Word of God.

There are two courses of study arranged by the International Lesson Committee for 1905.

We are to spend the first six months studying the writings of John, beginning with John 1, and ending with Rev. 22.

From July to January, 1906, we are to study the Old Testament from Isaiah to Malachi. This will furnish interesting material, and it is better arranged in course than such studies have usually been.

Let us make much of the Sunday-school lessons for 1905.

In all the world the membership of the Sunday-schools is 25,810,861. Of those, 13,092, 703 are in the United States, 7,456,108 in England and Wales, and the smallest number is 187 in Greece.

This membership is in 254,698 Sunday-schools, in which are found at work, 2,410,818 teachers, with 23,227,330 scholars. This is the greatest department of the church of Christ in this world. We are glad to be in it.

Yours for Christ and the Sunday-school,
THOMAS S. WEEKS.

OUR SUNDAY-SCHOOL LITERATURE.

The Christian Publishing Association prepares four distinct publications for our schools, viz: The Sunday-School Herald, Bible Class Quarterly, Intermediate Quarterly, and Little Teacher. Until some three years ago there was a second paper alternating with the Sunday-School Herald—the Good Tidings. The two papers carried the same class of matter and each was issued semi-monthly. Thus there were 48 issues a year only, and no paper for the fifth Sunday. Many schools insisted on having a paper for each Sunday and so the Board wisely concluded to combine the two papers. The result is a weekly publication and a much larger general circulation. While before, some schools took but one of the two papers, now all take a paper for full time. Since the union of the two, the paper has been very much enlarged and at least one-third more matter is given in the one than before in the two papers. Our circulation ranges from 10,000 to 11,000 copies, which means that the Sunday-School Herald enters about one-third of the families represented in our schools. Could we double the circulation, we could make the paper one of six, instead of four pages, without increasing the price. Many schools feel too poor to take the paper, but in such cases our wide-awake boys and girls could easily raise clubs for the Sunday-school Herald, for which service our Agent would be glad to give good premiums. Will not our pastors encourage the club idea, where their schools do not take the paper?

The Bible Class Quarterly has a circulation of about 25,500 copies and the Intermediate of 23,000, while the Little Teacher supplies 16,000 scholars. Thus, we have a total circulation of 64,000 helps for our enrollment of about 70,000. Clearly we do not reach all our schools, but no denominational House does, and perhaps no House in a larger per centage. We would be exceedingly glad to reach all our schools, as we already do in some of our larger conferences. The earnings of the Helps for the past ten months have been $1,791, which, for the year, would be $2,000, and for the quadrennium, $8,000. With such generous earnings, further improvements should be made in the literature. With a better quality of paper and adapted illustrations, the typographical appearance would be much improved. We think that we can assure our schools that such improvements will be made as early as the second quarter of 1905, when we shall be fully installed in our own House. We urge loyalty to our own Publishing Association and an earnest, kindly appeal to the Trustees for such improvements as are needed. The colored maps used the past years, have added much to the appearance of our Helps, but the additional expense of this improvement for the quadrennium will be close to $2,000. As we see it, our schools need our own literature as truly as our families need our own church papers. Not one faulting letter has come to us in the eight years past. This is gratifying, but we shall be equally gratified for any suggestions which may tend to the improvement of our Sunday-school Literature.

STARKEY SEMINARY

Lakemont, -:- New York

Owing to the generosity of the late Hon. Francis A. Palmer, of New York, the school has possession of a magnificent new building, equipped with modern appliances for convenience and comfort. Ten teachers, specialists in their several departments, compose the Board of Instruction, and the students are prepared for any college, trained for business or take finishing courses in art, elocution and vocal and instrumental music. The health record of the school is above the average, and its distance from all demoralizing influence tends to promote moral and intellectual health. Special watch-care is taken of the girls, who are under the supervision of five lady teachers. Terms are very moderate, while the table is kept up to the standard of schools that charge twice or thrice the Starkey rate.

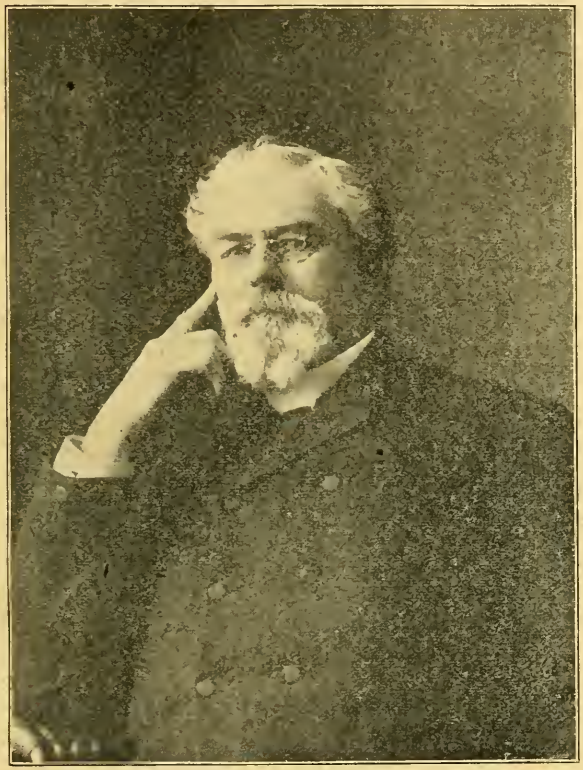
UNION CHRISTIAN COLLEGE.



REV. C. J. JONES, D. D. PRESIDENT.

In choosing a school, we naturally take into account various qualities; and no single institution may properly lay claim to a monopoly of educational excellence. Institutions, however, like persons, have individual characteristics, a history peculiarly their own.

U. C. College has behind it a record of more than forty years. The school is no longer an experiment. Hundreds of her representatives are now filling honorable and lucrative positions of service in almost every calling in life. Merit wins in the end, and the college has studiously tried in all her history to deserve a fair share of patronage. Speaking for the management, I desire to thank the many donors and earnest workers whose co-operation during the past two years particularly, has made the outlook bright by opening a large field of expansion and we trust of efficiency. The greatest present need is more students.

We confidently affirm that the cost of sound instruction and living at Merom is much lower than in the larger towns and more wealthy institutions. We aim to give the poor boy or girl a chance for the best things in college life and discipline.

The religious life of our young people should be wisely and naturally directed. Man is a moral as well as a physical and intellectual being and the institution that fails to provide food for the spiritual life is failing in the most vital element of sound training. Mere ethics, as a philosophy, is not enough; we need to touch the inner springs of the religious life; imparting, by example, the Christian motive. This is the one safeguard—the true ideal—of education. This element belongs to every great school, whether the students are few or many.

The Christian College is the best place in this world to prepare for a well rounded life and hence a true success.

In the opinion of able educators Union Christian College is favorably located. The town is quiet, healthful, moral. A residence community surrounded by excellent farms; an abundance and extensive variety of fruit; and, although about two miles from Merom Station, on the Illinois Central Railroad, has good gravel roads and telephone and telegraph privileges. No licensed saloons nor gambling dens. Athletic grounds and a wholesome spirit of recreation give zest to outdoor exercise.

The churches and Christian Associations maintain regular religious services. The Literary Societies afford excellent practice in oratory and debate. The Lecture Association, composed of the faculty, students and citizens, provides for the ablest speakers and entertainers to be had through the lecture bureaus.

The school trains teachers, lawyers, doctors and farmers as well as preachers. There is no cast or creed to hinder a full and free pursuit of study in any line of honorable scholarship. A full correspondence course is offered to all who cannot attend the College in person.

The larger number of students thus far, have become teachers. Many have taken up courses leading to the practice of law and medicine. Some have prepared for business, some for farming, and still others for the distinctly literary professions—like journalism.

DEFIANCE COLLEGE

DEFIANCE, OHIO.

THE BANNER YEAR.

This the third year in the history of Defiance College under the new organization and board of control, is the banner year. Although in its infancy, two hundred and seventy-one different students were enrolled last year. It is safe to predict that from three to four hundred will be enrolled the present year. Nearly every available room adjacent to the College has been taken. Twice as many students outside of Defiance and Defiance County have already registered as were enrolled last year. Students have enrolled from Canada, New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Iowa and Japan The total enrollment now shows a gain of forty per cent in foreign attendance over that of 1903 and 1904. The majority of these have had high school or academic courses and have entered college. One at a glance is impressed with the high character of the student body. Some of those enrolled have formerly attended the Ohio State University, Delaware and other large institutions, but have come to Defiance because of the advantages offered by the small college.

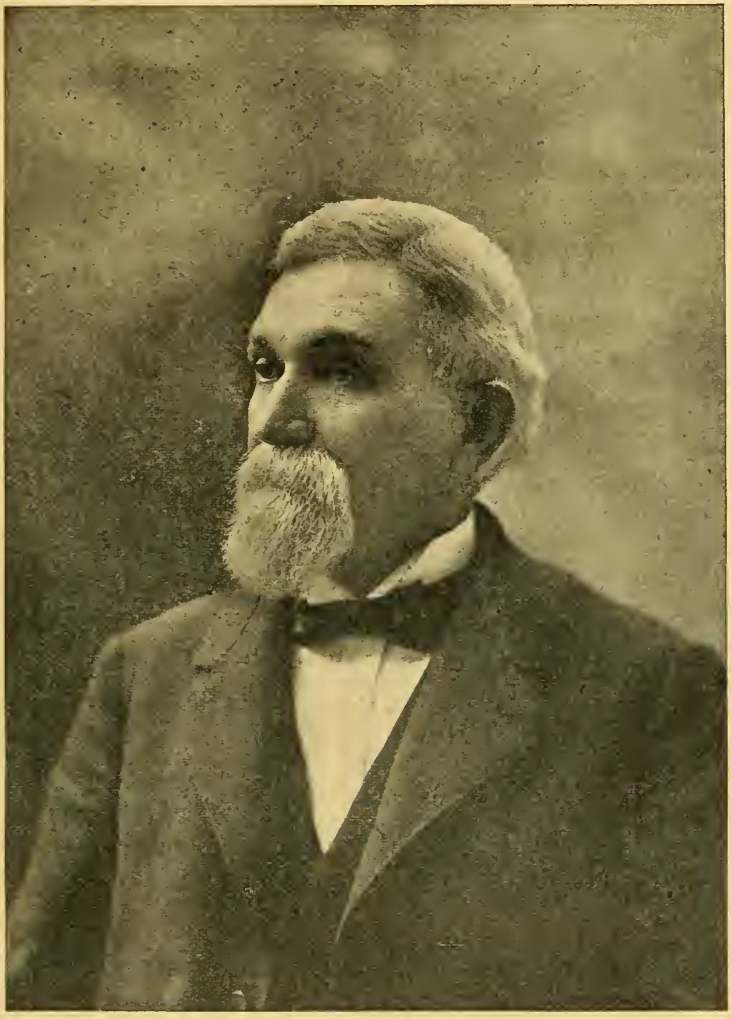
There are several reasons for this growth and advancement In the first place the school disappoints no candidate who possesses good, moral character and is willing to apply himself diligently. All worthy and competent graduates from every department are in demand.

Another reason for this growth is the fact that expenses are extraordinarily low.

A third reason is the confidence gained by the close personal attention given by the faculty to every student. Parents know that their sons and daughters are safe in Defiance College. They know that it aims at the highest type of Christian culture. The choice of a school often determines the future life of a student. No young man or woman can afford to experiment.

It is the purpose of the management and the Board of Trustees to build up a school that will not only be a credit to themselves, but to the city of Defiance and the surrounding country and the body of people they represent With this object in view, every effort is being directed toward the establishment of the ideal college. It is the desire of the board to furnish young men and women an opportunity to obtain a thorough education along any line and at a small cost.

Every student is sure to get value received, provided he is diligent, ambitious, earnest and possesses the essential elements of the twentieth century manhood.



Judge F. T. Sutphen, President Board Trustees, Defiance College.

FRANKLINTON COLLEGE

FRANKLINTON, N. C.

The college is dependent on its friends for financial support. If it could be suitably equipped for its work, and placed on a firm basis, its usefulness would be increased many fold. A few friends to the institution have remembered it in their bequests, and it is hoped that many others will.

Those who have money to leave, or what would be better, to give now, would do a lasting and immeasurable good, by contributing generously to Franklinton Christian College.

Lawrence, secretary, South Quay, Va.; Western North Carolina Conference, Rev. H. A. Albright, secretary, Moffit, N. C.; N. C. and Virginia Conference, Rev. J. W. Holt, secretary, Burlington, N. C.; Eastern North Carolina Conference, Rev. M. W. Butler, secretary, Raleigh, N. C.

Next session will meet Tuesday before the first Sunday in May, 1906. The selection of a place was left to the Executive Committee.

President, Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., Suffolk, Va.; Vice-President, Rev. J. O. Atkinson, Elon College, N. C.; Secretary, P. J. Kernodle, Elon College, N. C.; Assistant Secretary, Rev. J. W. Patton, Elon College, N. C.; Treasurer, J. A. Mills, Raleigh, N. C.

The home mission work of the convention as shown by the report of the president of the Christian Missionary Association at the last meeting of the Southern Convention is in successful operation. The Association, in addition to aiding special points, maintains two general missionaries in its bounds. As regards foreign missions, it is believed there is a steady growth of interest. A special call was made upon the conference for missions at the late session of the Convention.

The officers of the Christian Missionary Association are: Rev. J. O. Atkinson, President, Elon College, N. C.; Rev. J. W. Johnson, Secretary, Suffolk, Va. The Association meets Tuesday after the first Sunday in December, 1905. The report of the Committee on Schools and Colleges, made at Berea Church, Nansemond Co., Va., shows the indebtedness of Elon College to be entirely liquidated and the endowment increased to $30,000. That the churches composing the Convention pay a fixed sum annually of $1,800 for Elon College. Thus the college is freed from embarrassment as to its future progress. At the recent commencement it was decided to build a new dormitory to cost about $20,000, with modern equipments. Rev. W. W. Staley, D. D., is president of the college and its financial affairs are entrusted to him.

The Convention has also inaugurated plans for an orphanage, for which considerable funds have already been contributed. Its location was placed in the hands of the following committee: Rev. W. S. Long, D. D., Rev. J. L. Foster, and W. J. Lee, Esq. Rev. J. L. Foster, Raleigh, N. C., is secretary of the committee and authorized agent of this fund.

At the Berea Convention Rev. M. W. Butler, Raleigh, N. C., was made Sunday-school Department Secretary.

The Christian Sun was purchased by the Southern Convention and Rev. J. O. Atkinson, elected editor.
